

Natoaganeg First Nation is looking for two community members to participate in the next cohort for the Mi'gmaq Peacekeeping Initiative Training. Program details are outlined below. If interested, please email your resume to careers@natoaganegfirstnation.ca on or before January 3rd, 2025.

Mi'gmaq Peacekeeping Initiative Training – 3rd Cohort

Start Your Peacekeeping Journey Today!

Mi'gmaq Peacekeeping Incorporated (MPI) is excited to announce its 3rd training cohort for aspiring Peacekeepers! This is your opportunity to serve your community directly, become a leader, and inspire hope while fostering safety and wellness.

Key Details

- Training Duration: January 13 – February 21
- Cultural Week: February 24 – 28
- Graduation Ceremony: March 3
- Locations:
 - Training: Metepenagiag Heritage Park & New Brunswick Community College (Miramichi)
 - Accommodations: Travel Lodge by Wyndham, 1 Jane Street, Miramichi

Why Choose Peacekeeping?

Peacekeeping is a culturally grounded alternative to traditional enforcement approaches for community safety. This program equips you to address complex challenges while prioritizing your community's unique needs.

MPI provides specialized training in:

- Mental Health, Addiction, Trauma, and Violence
- Early Intervention & De-escalation Techniques
- Cultural Competency & Effective Communication
- Crucial Enforcement Skills

About the Training

Delivered by New Brunswick Community College and led by the highly experienced Jamie Macdonald, this 6-week program offers:

- Classroom Learning: Canadian Criminal Justice System, Interpersonal Behaviors, Documentation Skills
- Hands-on Practice: Defensive Driving, Conflict Management, First Responder Awareness, Static & Dynamic Security

Following the 6-week training, participants will engage in a Cultural Week for holistic growth, concluding with a Graduation Ceremony and a Certificate of Completion from NBCC.

Are You Ready?

If you're passionate about making a meaningful impact, this fast-paced, rewarding program is for you!